THE FRISKY PONIES AT THE GRAND.

The Grand Opera House was again completely filled yesterday afternoon and last night by enthusiastic and delighted audiences of ladies, gentlemen and children to witness the marvelous exhibition given by the horses comprising the W. C. Coup Eques-curriculum. The programme was slightly varied and improved from the first night, and the marvelous intelligence displayed by the equines in answering to their names and doing whatever told them by their trainer, Professor Bristol, brought forth continuous bursts of applause from the delighted audience. The play of "school" pleased all the little ones, who were fairly wild in their delight over the antics of the droll trick mule, Denver, as teacher, and the intelligence of his pupils. The jumping of the rope, swinging, leaping, tetering on a long plank and other amusing acts of wonderful intelligence, kept the audience in a constant state of amazement. The children were especially pleased with the Swiss bell ringing troupe, the rolling of barrels, churning, sitting down in chairs, drinking from a bottle, etc., while the military evolutions and drill of the squad excited the admiration of all. There will be a grand family matinee this afternoon at 2 o'clock—cheap prices, fifteen, twenty-five and thirty-five cents ruling, and final performance to-night at 8. Those who have not seen these wonderful horses should embrace the only remaining opportunities.

NOTES.

Theodore Thomas' orchestra is among the coming attractions at English's.

Circus to-day and to-night. Notice of yesterday's performance in another column.

The Smith family of Swiss bell ringers will hold the boards at English's Opera House all of next week, playing at cheap prices.

Governor Gray and family have accepted an invitation to attend the Mammoth Mastodon Circus to-night. A private box has been set apart for their accommodation.

The celebrated Mexican Typical Orchestra, composed of twenty-five skilled musicians, will be at the Grand Opera House the last three nights of next week. They are said to be far superior to the once famous "Spanish Students" in every way.

Bartley Campbell's famous "Galley Slave" Company will be the attraction at the Grand Opera House the first half of next week, playing for the benefit of the Uniform Bank K. of P. This is one of the largest and best companies on the road, and the play is one of the strongest Mr. Campbell ever wrote.

The Dime Museum continues to ride on the top wave of popular favor, and the crowds are so large at night that frequently three shows have to be given to accommodate them. Last night there was a perfect jam. The "camel girl," "Hop o' My Thumb," the armless wonder, Barney Nelson, Maud Rose, the bearded lady, and a strong stage show can all be seen for ten cents.

Postmaster Jones' Commission.

The commission of Postmaster Jones arrived yesterday, and the invoice of the property will take place this evening and to-night and the new official will enter upon his duties Sunday morning. Mr. Jones announces that John W. Dodd will be Assistant Postmaster; his son, B. F. Jones, Cashier; James H. Deery, Superintendent of Carriers; Rev. O. H. P. Abbott, stamp clerk; Joe Sheppard, Superintendent of Mail-bag Repairs; and Mr. Charles Wilder, Superintendent of the Money Order Department. Captain Fox, Milton Wilson and Alfred Harrison will have positions under Sheppard. Mr. Jones states that the appointment of Mr. Wilder is only temporary.

Jack Howard Hurt.

The Jeffersonville correspondent of the Louisville Courier-Journal says that Captain Jack Howard, Warden of the Southern Prison, and well-known in this city, was thrown from his buggy Thursday evening while in front of the Penitentiary and severely cut and bruised on the face and head. The horse which he was driving became unmanageable and ran onto a pile of lumber, overturning the buggy. Mr. Howard's injuries are not thought to be serious.

A Sweet Spill.

While passing along Washington street, near Tennessee, yesterday morning a wheel came off of one of A. G. Kirtland's wagons and a barrel of molasses was thrown out upon the street. Falling on the end, the head of the barrel was driven in and the contents ran over the street for some distance.
